

Learning objectives

1. To gain a better understanding of why adaptations may be helpful when working with children from diverse cultural groups.
2. To gain a better understanding of potential adaptations that can be made to trauma-focused assessments.
3. To gain a better understanding of potential adaptations that can be made to trauma-focused treatment interventions.
4. To become familiar with a sample adaptation of an intervention that has been developed for Latino children and families.